
READY ROOMMATES! : UVA'S ROOMMATE AGREEMENT SERVICE

Moving off grounds with your own roommate can be an amazing experience! Yet, because conflict is a natural part of the human experience, even the best roommates can encounter trouble getting along. Having a roommate means more than promised late nights and good conversation. It is a long-term commitment to your landlord and to each other.

While there is no way to completely prevent conflict, you can prepare for it! Preparation means establishing the expectations you have of yourself and each other. Remember, the roommate relationship is actually a complex one with issues of money, accountability, and respect at the core.

The roommate agreement (1) creates a clear understanding of each roommate's responsibilities and (2) protects your rights in potential conflict, especially important for issues concerning money.

Enclosed is a roommate agreement which you and your roommates can modify and sign. This important document provides a basic agreement standardized for most living situations while possessing room for special provisions. It was created out of great care for you, taking into account virtually all aspects of the roommate experience.

We congratulate you on deciding to work openly and honestly with your roommate(s) in constructing your very own roommate agreement. This step is sure to help you have a great year!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE ROOMMATE AGREEMENT

- Roommates should sit down preferably prior to or at least within one week of move-in to read, discuss, and complete the agreement. The roommates should meet to discuss their opinions and work out any differences so that a single agreement is completed and signed.
- Highlighted portions of this agreement may be modified/filled in as desired. Additional changes may affect your legal rights as a tenant and would be best served through consultation with the University Mediation Services or Student Legal Services. Such portions should be agreed upon by all roommates and worded in consensual language.
- Each roommate should get a copy of the signed agreement. If students consult with the University Mediation Services or the Student Legal Services, the original copy will be maintained and kept by those offices.
- Every person living in the rental unit should be included in the agreement.
- Roommates may consult with the University Mediation Services for assistance in achieving consensus for this agreement. Any modifications may similarly be conducted. Contact UMS at (434) 982-4638 or mediate@virginia.edu.
- Prior to signing this Roommate Agreement, roommates may consult with Student Legal Services. Contact Lester Wilson, Director of SLS at (434) 924-7524.

Attach copy of lease or rental agreement and landlord's house rules.

Roommate Agreement

Each roommate should receive a copy of this agreement. Original will be kept by _____.

We have signed a lease/rental agreement for _____ (address) on _____ (date). We hope to make certain that responsibilities of renting will be shared equally by all roommates. It is for this reason that we are signing this agreement.

ROOMMATES

The roommates of the above address are (please print clearly):

I understand that I am entering into a legally binding agreement with my roommates. I understand that we as a group and I as an individual are responsible to our landlord, the utility companies, and each other.

TERMS

This agreement is to begin on _____ for a term lasting from _____ to _____. The roommates listed above fully understand and accept the rules and responsibilities of this agreement.

A departing roommate will be responsible for upholding the lease agreement and this roommate agreement until, and possibly after a replacement roommate or subtenant is found. The remaining roommates are under no obligation to find or accept a replacement tenant. The departing roommate will remain liable for his/her share of the rent, utilities and other obligations under the lease unless the landlord and the remaining roommates agree to relieve him/her from these obligations. Decision to do so should be accomplished by a written agreement signed by the landlord and all roommates, including the departing roommate. The agreement should set forth the rights and obligations of the departing roommate after termination (including how the deposit issues will be addressed), and the obligations and rights of any replacement roommate.

In the alternative, the roommates may agree to sublease to a subtenant with the landlord's written consent. The departing roommate shall remain liable under the lease if the subtenant fails to perform his obligations.

DEPOSIT

The roommate(s) have paid a total security deposit of $_____. List amount each roommate has paid:

- At the conclusion of the lease, the deposit will be divided evenly. OR
- At the conclusion of the lease, roommates will bear the full cost of any deduction from the deposit for cleanup costs attributable to him/her individually. Remaining balance of security deposit, not attributed to one individual roommate, will be divided evenly.

If an original roommate has left the original lease, a written agreement signed by all roommates, including the departing roommate, will modify the distribution of the deposit as specified by the roommates at that time.

ALLOCATION OF ROOMS/INDIVIDUAL RENT

There are _____ bedrooms in the premises. The following tenants will share bedroom(s):

_____ will live in _____, $ _____ each;
(names) (room according to floor plan) (Rent)

FOOD PREPARATION

- Food expenses shall be shared by all roommates. Preparation of all meals shall be determined by an attached schedule, which can be flexible OR
- Food is to be bought by each roommate. There is to be no borrowing of food without prior approval. A separate space will be provided for each person's groceries. Shared meal preparation and clean up is optional.

NOISE and PRIVACY

All tenants agree to respect each other's need for privacy, quiet time, study time and sleep. All tenants will comply with the requirements of the lease and of local and state law as regards noise.

During final exam times, tenants agree to respect quiet hours from _____ to _____. Roommates agree to the following definition/level of "quiet": _____

PERSONAL PROPERTY

All roommates agree to refrain from borrowing roommate's personal items without prior approval. Exceptions to this should be clearly stated, with the roommates reserving the right to change their minds about the sharing of their items. Property that is borrowed will be used respectfully and returned in the same condition within an agreed timeframe. If damage is done to personal property, the roommate responsible for damage will be held liable.

DAMAGE

Each roommate shall pay for repair of all damage caused by him/her, or any of his/her guests.

At the end of the lease, all roommates will participate in cleaning the premises for inspection. Any roommate who does not participate hereby agrees to pay 50% of his/her share of the returned deposit, to be divided among the tenants who did the cleanup work. Regardless of cleanup participation, each roommate shall bear the full cost of any deduction from the deposit for cleanup costs attributable to him/her individually.

GUESTS

Each roommate shall respect the needs of the others in having guests, especially overnight, and shall abide by all provisions of the lease regarding guests.

Objection by the majority of roommates to any roommate's guest practices shall be binding. In the case of only two roommates, or if there is a tie situation, roommates may consult with the University Mediation Services for help resolving any disagreement.
