

OUR HISTORY

Student Council was founded on April 25th, 1945 with the purpose of providing for the well-being of the student body. Over the decades since its establishment, Student Council has been a student government on the forefront of progress with a long history of advocating for the advancement of diversity, equity, and inclusion. Student Council fought for the inclusion of women into the College of Arts and Sciences, advocate on behalf of African American students as early as the 1960's and help procure the funding for building Clemons Library. Student Council's history is a history of students daring to advocate on behalf of any and all students, tackling issues big and small.
